NOTE TO: DDCI STAT SUBJECT: Paper STAT is in the process of writing a paper on the way programmatic decisions are made within the Intelligence Community. A draft of this paper will be available in a couple of weeks. Jerry has done an extensive set of interviews with a number of people who have been involved or are now involved in decisions on collection programs. Over the past several years the two of you have had a lot of discussions about the approach, and I have a reasonably good idea about his approach and at least his initial conclusions. I think they are both insightful and practical.
